Food and Product Sampling Truck

Food Truck Advertising & Marketing Solutions

A Food and Product Sampling Truck will work for the launch of any new food or beverage product.

Food and Sampling Trucks can be used for PR purposes also. Even if you're not in the food and beverage industry, free coffee or hot chocolate giveaway will always attract lots of positive publicity. Serve up your freebies in branded cups, throw in some fun out-of-home media, and you have yourself a branding campaign that will inform and entertain your market.

Our Food and Sampling Trucks are the most cost-effective way to attract and influence consumers through complimentary product samples and an enjoyable eating experience.

Billboard Truck

Mobile Billboard Truck

Mobile Billboard advertising is 10 times more efficient way to reach the audience than static billboard and bus campaigns.

Each side of an Accent Media Corp Mobile vehicle has right, left and rear scrolling billboards that deliver new messages every ten seconds. With the ability to scroll multiple billboards on three sides and broadcast your radio spot over an eight-speaker sound system, this is truly the best way to engage your consumers' senses. Accent Media's mobile scrolling billboard vehicle follows proven routes in the most heavily trafficked areas ensuring the best visibility for your advertising message

Build your business awareness with the use of mobile scrolling billboards and reach thousands of people each day

Glass Display Truck

Glass Walled Display Truck

The possibilities are endless with the use of Accent Media's Glass Display Truck. We offer you a unique advertising opportunity to reach your audience with a live display of your product.

Our glass walled display truck is built to showcase any product, such as motor vehicles, motorcycles, small motor boats, scooters, sea-doo, furniture, office environments, clothing collections jewelry displays, tourism showcases, and countless other ideas. The additional option of Glass Display truck wrapping (full or partial) completes the branding of the truck for your Glass Display truck advertising campaign.

Glass Display Truck features a mobile showroom with a scene built inside of a Glass Walled Display Truck to your specifications
